Dear Admiral Turner

The events surrounding my retirement have been so eventful that I have had to catch my breath before sitting down to thank you for the manner in which you handled the Awards Ceremony on February 18, 1980. Your kind words were deeply appreciated and the fact that you included my family in the festivities made it even more meaningful.

I have written individual notes to [redacted] and John McMahon but

I feel I had to thank you personally for your support as well as your warmth. The photograph taken in your office of Judge Webster, myself and myself will command a most distinguished location wherever I locate. It is a picture I will be very proud of. As a matter of fact, I sent a copy to Judge Webster suggesting he display it in his office as eloquent testimony to the outstanding relationship between the CIA and FBI. Sincerely,
